4. Mr. Coyne then said he had received a copy of Mr. McGone's letter to the Attorney General on the FBI matter, and asked whether there were any unresolved issues or questions which the Board should get into. I told him I didn't think so, and that working level liaison was now in the process of formulating the procedures for accomplishing the objectives that the DCI had originally mentioned to the Board.

5. Mr. Coyne asked me if I could give him any comment on the book, "The Secret War," by Sanche DeGramont. I told him I thought the book might well have been inspired by French intelligence, and I would send him a brief note on it.
